

Travel bursary for the AES Annual Conference

The Agricultural Economics Society will support the participation of up to three individuals with a £500 bursary. The bursary can be used for travel and conference fees only. To be eligible the individual has to have a Contributed Paper or a Discussion Paper accepted to the Conference. There are no restrictions regarding nationality, age or academic status.

Application to be submitted along with the paper submission. The application must contain a motivation letter explaining how the applicant would benefit from attending the conference and why they need the bursary and a Curriculum Vitae.

The candidates will be notified on the decision along with the decision on their paper acceptance. Successful candidates will be asked to provide a report on their experiences of the conference. These reports will be published in the AES Newsletter.

Frederic Ang, AES Programme Secretary, 2019